

POPPY-CARDAMON PANCAKES

The delicious combination of poppy seeds and cardamom is familiar to many from the pastries, which are now also available in our range of small pancakes. With its oriental flavours and aromas, cardamom is a much appreciated spice in our Nordic countries, adding an exciting and recognisable flavour to foods and drinks and creating a warm sensation. Poppy seeds add a crunchy texture and a hint of nuttiness. The curd-based pancakes are lactose-free and are therefore also suitable for consumers whose menus exclude lactose.

The pancakes are packed in a very handy pouch that can be easily resealed if desired.
